1685 Aug 8 Bulkeley, Peter, 1645-1688.

To Joseph Dudley, London.

[Boston.] Has sent him a full account of their efforts to get money to him. He will have learned that no less than the Broad Seal itself is sufficient warrant in money matters. Mr. C: says that so great a prize is not to be lost, and Coll. D: hinted that the charter is sure to be given up, though not before he could be exchanged. Was not consulted in the matter of Mr. C: Mr.Cary is expected every day. A.L.S. 2p. 9 1/2 x 6 3/4 in.

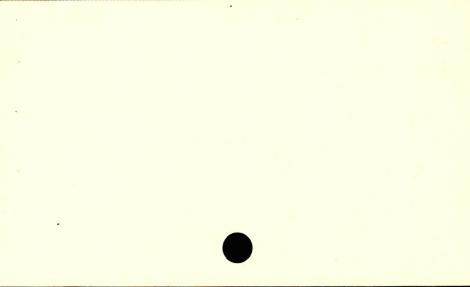

In a postscript he adds the news of the fever of Conochiant, and the condition of the crops.

1722 Mar 18 Shute, Samuel, 1662-1742; governor of Massachusetts.

To the Reverend Mr. Colman, Boston.

[London, Eng.] Arrived after thirty days, in Cork, and after a few days stay there proceeded to Bristol. Appreciates his expressions of kind regard toward him expressed in his two letters Feels kindly towards the people of New England in spite of their ungrateful ways. Was graciously received by the King and ministers of state. Is surprised that he did not understand why he left, after the people took up arms against him. Will endeavor to return and to make them a happy people. Is glad the affair of the College is put off: should it appear serious again, will go what he can to avert disaster. He and Lord Barrington are to dine with Mr. Hollis. Will report any news of interest. Asks that his letter be shown to the President. Encloses to him a copy of Lord Barrington's let relating his misfortune in the House of Commons in the matter Harburgh. A.L.S. 2p. 12 x 7 1/2 in.
